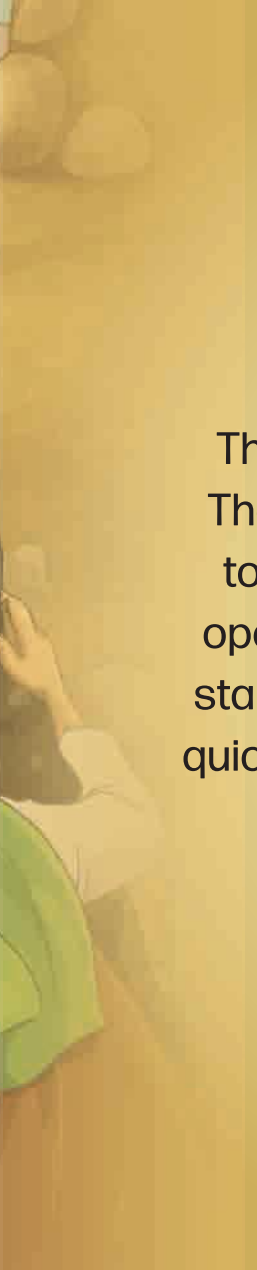
It was a beautiful, sunny day in the city of Medina. The wind was blowing gently, as Prophet Muhammad (s) and his friends walked down the street. They were on their way to their friend's house for lunch. As they turned a corner, they saw some children playing in the street.

The Prophet (s) came closer and spotted his grandson, Imam Hasan (a), and his friends. The Prophet (s) smiled brightly at all the children and lovingly said, “Salaamun Alaikum!” All the children, were so excited to see the Prophet (s). They started laughing and replied, “Wa Alaikum Salaam!” As the Prophet (s) came closer to them, they started giggling and running away.



They wanted to play tag with the Prophet (s)! The Prophet (s) tried to catch them all. He ran towards Imam Hasan (a) with his arms wide open, trying to catch him, too. Imam Hasan (a) started laughing and ran away. The Prophet (s) quickly chased after him, so Imam Hasan (a) hid behind a tall palm tree.

Again, the Prophet (s) tried to catch him. Again, Imam Hasan (a) ran away laughing. This time, he hid behind a wall.

As the Prophet's (s) friends watched the two of them playing, they also started laughing and cheering. The Prophet (s) finally caught Imam Hasan (a) and showered him with hugs and kisses!

The Prophet (s) then turned to his friends and said, “Imam Hasan (a) is very special to me! Allah loves Imam Hasan (a), so we should love Imam Hasan (a) too.”

The Prophet (s) then put Imam Hasan (a) on his shoulders and took him along to his friend's house. The Prophet (s) loved Imam Hasan (a) very much and taught all the Muslims that we should love him too!
